

pay Plaintiff sufficient wages under the FLSA and the VMWA within the applicable statutory limitations period.

3. Upon information and belief, within the three years prior to the filing of the Complaint, Defendant has willfully and intentionally committed violations of the FLSA and the VMWA as described, infra.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia has subject matter jurisdiction over this suit under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this suit raises federal questions under the FLSA.

5. Plaintiff's claims under the VMWA form part of the same case or controversy and arise out of the same facts as the FLSA claims alleged in this complaint. Therefore, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's VMWA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

6. Defendant conducts business within the Commonwealth of Virginia.

7. Venue lies properly within this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and (c)(2), because the Commonwealth of Virginia has personal jurisdiction over Defendant, and Defendant therefore "resides" in Virginia.

8. A substantial part of the acts complained of herein were committed in and had their principal effect against Plaintiff within the Charlottesville Division of the Western District of Virginia. Therefore, venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 and Western District of Virginia Local Rules 2(a)(3) and 2(b).

III. THE PARTIES

9. Plaintiff is an individual and resident of Fluvanna County.

10. Separate Defendant IL Castello, Inc. (“IL Castello”), is a domestic, for-profit corporation.

11. IL Castello’s registered agent for service of process is Gabriella Candella at 17 Boulder Springs Lane, Louisa, Virginia 23093.

12. Separate Defendant Gabriella Candella (“Candella”) is an individual and resident of Virginia.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully incorporated in this section.

14. Candella is a principal, director, officer, and/or owner of IL Castello.

15. Candella took an active role in operating IL Castello and in the management thereof.

16. Candella, in her role as an operating employer of IL Castello, had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, often supervised Plaintiff’s work and determined her work schedule, and made decisions regarding Plaintiff’s pay, or lack thereof.

17. Candella, at relevant times, exercised supervisory authority over Plaintiff in relation to her work schedule, pay policy and the day-to-day job duties that Plaintiff’s jobs entailed.

18. Defendant owns and operates Castello Italian Restaurant and Pizza in Virginia.

19. Defendant’s annual gross volume of sales made or business done was not less than $500,000.00 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated) during each of the three calendar years preceding the filing of this Complaint.

20. During each of the three years preceding the filing of this Complaint, Defendant employed at least two individuals who were engaged in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce, or had employees handling, selling, or otherwise working on goods or materials that had been moved in or produced for commerce by any person, such as vehicles, fuel and goods or materials typically used in the fast-food industry.

21. Defendant employed Plaintiff within the three years preceding the filing of this lawsuit.

22. Specifically, Defendant employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid Delivery Driver from approximately November of 2020 until July of 2021.

23. Defendant also employed other hourly-paid Delivery Drivers within the three years preceding the filing of this lawsuit.

24. At all relevant times herein, Defendant directly hired Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers to work on its behalf, paid them wages and benefits, controlled their work schedules, duties, protocols, applications, assignments and employment conditions, and kept at least some records regarding their employment.

25. At all times material herein, Plaintiff has been entitled to the rights, protections and benefits provided under the FLSA.

26. Defendant classified Plaintiff as nonexempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA.

27. Defendant also classified other Delivery Drivers as nonexempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendant applies or causes to be applied substantially the same employment policies, practices, and procedures to all Delivery Drivers at all of their locations, including policies, practices, and procedures relating to payment of minimum wages and reimbursement of automobile expenses.

29. Defendant is an “employer” within the meaning set forth in the FLSA and the VMWA, and was, at all times relevant to the allegations in this Complaint, Plaintiff’s employer, as well as the employer of the members of the proposed collective.

30. Plaintiff and the other Delivery Drivers at Defendant’s restaurants work “dual jobs.” Specifically, they deliver food to Defendant’s customers and receive tips, and they also work inside the store completing nontipped duties.

31. Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers a rate at or close to Virginia’s minimum wage.

32. Defendant requires Delivery Drivers to maintain and pay for operable, safe, and legally compliant automobiles to use in delivering Defendant’s pizza and other food items.

33. Defendant requires Delivery Drivers to incur and/or pay job-related expenses, including but not limited to automobile costs and depreciation, gasoline expenses, automobile maintenance and parts, insurance, financing, cell phone costs, and other equipment necessary for delivery drivers to complete their job duties.

34. Pursuant to such requirements, Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers purchased gasoline, vehicle parts and fluids, automobile repair and maintenance services, automobile insurance, suffered automobile depreciation, paid for automobile financing, and incurred cell phone and data charges all for the primary benefit of Defendant.

35. Defendant does not track Plaintiff’s or other Delivery Drivers’ actual expenses nor does Defendant keep records of all of those expenses.

36. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers for their actual expenses.

37. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at the IRS standard business mileage rate.

38. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at a reasonable approximation of Delivery Drivers' expenses.

39. Defendant did not pay Plaintiff or other Delivery Drivers any reimbursement for miles driven while making deliveries to Defendant's customers.

40. According to the Internal Revenue Service, the standard mileage rate for the use of a car during the relevant time periods has been as follows:

2019: 58 cents/mile
2020: 57.5 cents/mile
2021: 56 cents/mile
2022: 58.5 cents/mile

41. As a result of the automobile and other job-related expenses incurred by Plaintiff and other similarly situated Delivery Drivers, they were deprived of minimum wages guaranteed to them by the FLSA.

42. At all relevant times, Defendant has applied the same pay policies, practices, and procedures to all Delivery Drivers at their stores.

43. All of Defendant's Delivery Drivers were subject to the same reimbursement policy; received similar reimbursements; incurred similar automobile expenses; completed deliveries of similar distances and at similar frequencies; and were paid less than the applicable minimum wage rate before deducting unreimbursed vehicle costs.

44. Regardless of the precise amount of the per-delivery reimbursement at any given point in time, Defendant's lack of reimbursement has resulted in an unreasonable underestimation of Delivery Drivers' automobile expenses throughout the recovery period, causing systematic violations of the minimum wage laws.

45. Because Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers a gross hourly wage at or around the applicable minimum wage, and because Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers incurred unreimbursed automobile expenses and other job expenses, the Delivery Drivers "kicked back" to Defendant an amount sufficient to cause minimum wage violations. See 29 C.F.R. § 531.35.

46. In 2021, for example, Defendant under-reimbursed Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at a rate of 56 cents per mile.

47. Thus, in 2021, if Plaintiff completed 2 deliveries per hour and if each delivery was 10 miles roundtrip, Plaintiff would have consistently "kicked back" to Defendant approximately $11.20 per hour ($0.56 per mile x 2 deliveries per hour x 10 miles per delivery).

48. Plaintiff drove sufficient miles per hour that the amount she "kicked back" to Defendant led to minimum wage violations.

49. Defendant knew or should have known that it was not paying Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers sufficient minimum wages.

50. Defendant has willfully failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiff and similarly situated Delivery Drivers.

V. REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

- A. They were classified by Defendant as nonexempt from the minimum wage and overtime requirements of the FLSA;
- B. They had substantially similar job duties and requirements;
- C. They were required by Defendant to incur expenses to maintain vehicles for delivery of Defendant's products;
- D. They were subject to Defendant's common policy of not reimbursing Delivery Drivers for automobile expenses related to making deliveries for Defendant's restaurants;

E. They did not receive a lawful minimum wage or overtime premium.

57. Plaintiff's claims are essentially the same as those of the putative collective.

58. Defendant's unlawful conduct is pursuant to a corporate policy or practice.

59. Plaintiff is unable to state the exact number of potential members of the FLSA collective but believes that the collective exceeds five persons.

60. Defendant can readily identify the members of the collective, who are a certain portion of the current and former employees of Defendant.

61. The names, addresses and cell phone numbers of the FLSA collective action plaintiffs are available from Defendant, and a Court-approved Notice should be provided to the FLSA collective action plaintiffs via text message, email, and first class mail to their last known physical and electronic mailing addresses as soon as possible, together with other documents and information descriptive of Plaintiff's FLSA claim.
